

DESERTIONS FROM THE ARMY

Will Continue to be Excessive Until There is a Change of Public Sentiment Towards Army.

NO REASON TO EXPECT IT SOON

So Holds Maj. Gen. F. C. Ainsworth, Military Secretary, in His Annual Report.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Maj. Gen. F. C. Ainsworth, the military secretary, in his annual report devotes much attention to desertions from the army. Those who know how the canteen came to be established, he states, are not hopeful of its restoration; there is no likelihood of any such increase in the soldiers' pay as will offset the greater inducement offered in civil pursuits, the comforts and even luxuries that are furnished to enlisted men in our service are even now criticized by some as being not only extravagant, but injurious in their effect on men whose real business it is to march and fight, unencumbered with few comforts and no luxuries; and the discipline and instruction to which the soldier is now subjected are not likely to be relaxed in future.

"Your people have little real interest in the army in time of peace, and from the earliest days of the republic have been accustomed to look upon it as a more or less unnecessary institution. Enlistment in the army in time of peace is not uncommonly regarded as evidence of worthlessness on the part of the recruit."

"It is safe to predict that desertion from the army will continue to be excessive until there shall have been a radical change of public sentiment toward the army and until the deserter shall come to be regarded as the criminal that he is, to be ostracized and hunted down as relentlessly as any other transgressor."

"There is no reason to look for such a change of sentiment in the near future, and there are some who believe that the change will never come until our people shall have learned through national disaster and humiliation that the effective maintenance of an army of professional soldiers is absolutely essential to the preservation of the national honor and life, and that the trained and disciplined troops of a modern army cannot be withdrawn by hastily organized armies of untrained or half-trained civilians."

"The losses in the regular army during the fiscal year were: Officers killed in action or died of wounds, disease, etc., 24; resigned or discharged, 20; dismissed, 12; deserted, 53; retired, 53; total, 119."

"Enlisted men killed in action or died of wounds, disease, etc., 277; discharged upon expiration of term of service, 22,254; discharged for disability, by sentence of court-martial and by order, 2,449; deserted, 6,533; retired, 183. Total, 28,831."

During the year 274 battle flags in custody of the war department were returned to the governors of the states in which the regiments that bore them were raised. He says there still remain here 432 of these flags.

Gen. Ainsworth recommends that these Union flags be transferred to the United States military academy and that the confederate flags be given to some general confederate memorial or historical association.

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 25.—The wireless telegraph station here has been in communication with the cruiser West Virginia during all last night and today.

Messages during the night conveyed news that the president was well and thoroughly enjoying the voyage, with the weather up to that time.

The cruiser had not encountered rough weather until shortly after noon today. When, nearing Savannah, it ran into the storm which is prevailing along the coast.

Last night Admiral Brownson gave a banquet to the officers of the West Virginia and her consorts in honor of the president. The usual Saturday evening band concert followed.

The West Virginia and her consorts passed by St. Augustine shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. The vessels were nearly 100 miles off the coast.

Major Royce, in behalf of the citizens of St. Augustine, sent a message to the president from this station, offering congratulations and best wishes for a safe and pleasant voyage. The message was received and acknowledged.

The station here picked up a number of messages which were being transmitted to the president, most of which were words of congratulation and best wishes from the governors and high officials all over the country.

The station here reported off Savannah about 2 o'clock this afternoon. The ships were well out to sea, and making remarkable speed, notwithstanding the high winds.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 29.—The following wireless exchanges today between the mayor of Savannah and the president, on board the cruiser West Virginia.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 29.—President Theodore Roosevelt, on board the cruiser West Virginia: In behalf of the citizens of Savannah I congratulate you upon your capture of the southern people's hearts, and wish you a safe return to the capital. Herman Meyers, mayor of Savannah.

U. S. S. West Virginia.—To Mayor Herman Meyers, Savannah, Ga.: I thank you and the citizens of Savannah most heartily. Theodore Roosevelt.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same vain hope of health, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity. It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck, those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1904 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Hack, of 342 Broadway, Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. My health was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband and me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some better. The medicine made me well and happy, free from nervousness, ache and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. My medicine is certainly the best in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets is a gentle laxative, and a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish selfish over-estimate of your own strength prevent you from getting Dr. Pierce's Little Liver Pills, first put up by Dr. J. C. Pierce over 30 years ago. Much untold but never denied.

has spent most of the day on the forward bridge with Admiral Brownson.

New Orleans, Oct. 29.—Mayor Behrman tonight received the following message from President Roosevelt:

"On board the flagship West Virginia at sea, via Savannah, Ga., Oct. 29.—To Mayor Behrman, New Orleans: I heartily thank you and the city of New Orleans for the magnificent hospitality given me. Theodore Roosevelt."

INTERSTATE COMMERCE
LAW LEAGUE CONVENTION

Judge Cowan Says There is Evidence That an Attempt Was Made to Pack It in Interest of the Railroads.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Evidence tending to prove that efforts were made to pack the Interstate Commerce Law league will be taken to Washington by the notification committee and placed before the proper authorities when they go to the capital to present President Roosevelt with a copy of the resolutions adopted by the convention in Steiway hall.

This statement was made tonight by Judge Cowan of Port Worth, Tex., who was a delegate to the convention. According to Judge Cowan, the executive committee of the league for several weeks before the convention had detectives busy gathering evidence showing that the railroads were attempting to influence delegates, with the purpose of defeating the object of the convention in indorsing President Roosevelt's position on the railroad rate question.

"One of the charges against our convention by the railroad people," said Judge Cowan tonight, "is that our this is manifestly ridiculous, as more than half the delegates in Steiway hall were Democrats from southern states. This movement is broader than any political party, and those connected with the movement include representatives of every party and every line of business in the country."

"We will organize immediately in every state, and when congress takes President Roosevelt's message on governmental rate regulation this winter we will send one of the largest and most influential and representative lobbies to Washington ever seen in the Capitol."

A VIRGINIA TRAGEDY.
W. D. Coker Kills His Family, R. E. Gressett and Himself.

Gloster Court House, Va., Oct. 28. R. E. Gressett was shot and killed this morning by W. D. Coker, who had been concealed under the steps of Gressett's home. Coker sent word to the officers to come to his home at Greenwood as he had killed Gressett. Just as the officers reached Coker's home they heard the report of a gun, and on entering the house found Coker dead. He had already killed his wife and two little girls, one 6 and the other 5.

Mrs. Coker was previous to her marriage Miss Robbie Roy, daughter of Lieut. Robert Roy and a cousin of Mrs. A. J. Montague, wife of Virginia's governor.

When the officers entered the Coker home they found his dead body sitting upright in a chair. His gun was lying across his knees. The wife and children had been shot, killed and laid out on a table placed over their eyes.

Coker let a note in which he said he killed his family to save them from disgrace. He named Gressett and his brother as the cause of his trouble.

BULL FIGHT ACCIDENT.
Matador in City of Mexico Badly Gored.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from the City of Mexico says: Joaquin Hernandez was gored by the third bull yesterday, the horn penetrating his body. After falling to the ground he again was gored in the right side. Physicians declare the wounds fatal. The matador received a cable from Seattle announcing the death of his father. He endeavored to secure the cancellation of the fight, but the management refused to comply with the request.

Infringed a Copyright.
Keokuk, Ia., Oct. 29.—Eliot Glass was convicted in the federal court here today of infringement of copyright in the case of the play 'Way Out West.' The case is of special interest as being the first to be tried in the United States under a new law which went into effect last July, making copyright infringement a criminal misdemeanor.

White Ribbon Day.
Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 29.—Today was "white ribbon" day in the various churches of the city and suburban towns, in honor of the visiting delegates to the National Woman's Christian Temperance union convention.

The principal event of the day was the convention sermon, delivered by Miss Elizabeth W. Greenwood of New York, superintendent of the evangelistic department at the First Congregational church this afternoon.

WATER MAIN BREAK SPREADS DISASTER

Three Persons Are Dead as a Result and Several More Are Seriously Injured.

MANY FAMILIES ARE HOMELESS

Trouble Occurred in Chicago—Freight Traffic on the Nickel Plate Delayed for Hours.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Three lives were lost; property valued at $100,000 was destroyed; scores of families were made homeless, and freight traffic on the Nickel Plate railroad was delayed for several hours as the result of the breaking of a water main at Eighteenth and Clark streets today.

The fatalities resulted, indirectly, from the bursting of the water pipe, which flooded the immediate neighborhood for several blocks, damaging a number of business houses. Two of the persons who lost their lives were overcome by gas in the Illinois tunnel at Eighteenth and Armour avenue, while attempting to ascertain if the flood had damaged the property of the company. The other death was the result of a shock to an invalid who awoke and found her room flooded with water.

Several persons were injured in the flood while attempting to recover the bodies of the two men suffocated in the tunnel. The dead:

DEAD.
Michael Barry, shaft superintendent of the Illinois Tunnel company, overcome by gas.

Patrick Barry, master mechanic for the tunnel company, overcome by gas.

Mrs. Lottie Hamlin.

INJURED.
John Casey, overcome by gas while attempting to rescue the Barry brothers; condition serious.

Cyrus Mahan, overcome by gas while looking for the bodies of the Barry brothers; condition serious.

Joseph Lacombe, leg broken when the Nickel Plate railroad tracks, which had been undermined by the flood, caved.

Several other persons suffered minor injuries while escaping from their homes in the flooded district. Up to a late hour tonight the bodies of the Barry brothers were still in the tunnel.

So great was the force of the water that escaped from the broken main that all the business houses and homes on Clark street from Sixteenth street to Twentieth street, and those on LaSalle street, were flooded. The tracks of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railway between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets were undermined and the roadbed caved in. Several freight cars were overturned and their contents damaged.

MINE OFFICIALS DO THEIR DUTY AND ARE KILLED

Held if Any Risk Was to be Taken Those in Responsible Positions Should Take It, Not the Miners.

Pittsburg, Oct. 29.—Five minor officials of the Pittsburg & Westmoreland Coal company gave up their lives when they entered the Hazelkirk mine No. 1 of the company at Hazelkirk, Pa., to ascertain if a portion of the mine was still burning as a result of an explosion two weeks ago. The dead are:

DEAD.
John Hornick, superintendent.

Daniel Griffith, foreman.

Joseph Hunter.

John Lavey.

Henry Clayborne, fire boss.

All are married, with large families, and were men of considerable means. It was decided that if any risk was to be taken those holding responsible positions should take it instead of the miners.

The five men, after having entered the mine, decided to tear down the wooden erected to confine the fire to one entry of the mine. Just as the covering was removed there was a terrific explosion, and the five men were blown in different ways, all being instantly killed.

Andrew Boyer, who was some distance behind the five men, escaped instant death, but was so badly burned that he died later. He reached the bottom of the shaft, gave the alarm and, when rescued, all the men were found to be dead.

John Hornick was one of the original owners of the Hazelkirk mine Nos. 1 and 2 and was reported to have received nearly $100,000 for his holdings at the time the corporation was formed. All of the others were well known.

The mine is on fire. The damage may reach thousands of dollars.

NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT.
Its Form Has Not Been Definitely Settled as Yet.

Christiania, Oct. 29.—The storthing sat until a late hour Saturday night discussing a constitution. M. Honow, the Radical leader, on behalf of the Republicans, declared that the government proposal for a plebiscite would diminish the respect held for the storthing's governmental responsibility. Foreign Minister Loeveland said a republican constitution would be intrinsically as valuable as a monarchical constitution, but he pointed out that Norway, being a well-established constitution, monarchy, generations of labor would be necessary to work out republican institutions.

A continuation as a monarchy, he added, would be the logical result of the policy of June 7 (when the storthing dissolved the union between Sweden and Norway), and that otherwise Norway's international position would be hazardous.

Minister of Commerce Arctander said:

the government would resign if this policy was defeated. Among those selected for ministerial posts abroad is H. C. Hague, formerly secretary of legation for Norway and Sweden at Washington. The foreign office is pushing the work of organizing a consular service.

LONG PERILOUS TRIP OF BRITISH BARK DUNDEE

Left Bremen March 4—Could Not Round The Horn—Crew Made Officers Make for Cape Town.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—British bark Dundee, Capt. James Stephens, arrived this evening. The vessel sailed from Bremen, Germany, March 4, bound for Seattle. While off the river La Platta, an apprentice boy named Geo. Mackey, fell from a loft and was instantly killed. In June, when the vessel attempted to sail around the Horn 10 of the crew of 14 were laid up, sick and worn out from overwork and poor food. Heavy gales forced the ship back and after beating around the cape for a week with only three able-bodied men, the other sailors forced the captain to put about and run for Cape Town. Before reaching that port the sailors recovered to some extent and the captain refused to land. In the straits of Sunda on July 8 the crew mutinied. The sailors drew knives and forced the officers to seek the protection of the cabin. The officers secured guns and subdued the sailors, taking their knives from them. The men refused to work the ship and she had a narrow escape from drifting on the rocks. In Batavia the crew was placed in irons. A crew of coolies was shipped and the vessel was navigated to Singapore where the sailors were tried for mutiny. Part of the number were sentenced to 11 weeks' imprisonment and the rest to nine weeks at hard labor. The men contended that the poor food and the brutal treatment of the officers had forced them to mutiny. On the way to this port a typhoid was lost in a heavy gale that compelled her to lay hove to for 10 days.

AN ORPHANAGE BURNED.
Three Persons Injured One of Whom Has Died.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 29.—Three persons were seriously injured, one of whom subsequently died, and a dozen others had a narrow escape from the flames in a fire that destroyed the private home at Nazareth orphanage, a Catholic boys' institution three miles from Raleigh, last night. The fire broke out between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning and spread rapidly. The building, caused by jumping from the second and third story windows. Evan Buffalo, aged 13, and John Glavish, aged 15, were hemmed in by the flames on top of the building 45 feet above the street. Timothy Wallace of New York, who has been staying for the priesthood, climbed the buttress to rescue them, was cut off from the stairways and the three jumped. All were mangled and injured seriously. Glavish died tonight. Dr. Lamb of New York and Rev. Fathers Price and O'Brien jumped from the windows 30 feet to the ground, but were not seriously injured. Property loss, $25,000.
